Platinum Short Term Disability Plan

Plan #610007-P

How is this plan funded?

The STD plan is fully self-funded and administered by the I&B Trust of PORAC.

How do I become covered?

To become covered under this plan, you must apply (complete and return the attached application form) and if required, submit and have approved evidence of good health. If you are required to submit evidence of good health your coverage will not become effective until your evidence has been approved. Regardless, you also must be capable of Active Work on the day before the scheduled effective date of your coverage.

You will be required to provide satisfactory evidence of good health to become insured if:

- You apply for coverage more than 90 days after you become eligible for coverage
- You join PORAC more than one year after you first were eligible to join
- Fewer than 10 members in your participating unit are covered under the plan on the date you apply
- You were eligible under a prior Group Disability plan but were not covered
- You were covered previously and allowed your coverage to lapse

What is a “Safety Member”?

Safety Member is an employee who is eligible to receive benefits through the employee's current Employer under California Labor Code Section 4850 and safety employee benefits under the County Employees Retirement Act of 1937 or Public Employees Retirement Systems (PERS) of California, or an equivalent safety retirement plan.

How is “disability” defined?

If you become Disabled while covered under the Safety STD Plan, the Trust will pay benefits according to the terms of the Safety STD Plan after we receive Proof of Loss (see time limits below) and determine the benefit payable. The Trust is solely responsible for paying Safety STD Plan benefits. You are Disabled if you meet the “Own Occupation” definition of Disability:

Own Occupation Definition of Disability

1. Total Disability Definition: You are Totally Disabled from your Own Occupation if, as a result of Physical Disease, Injury, Pregnancy or Mental Disorder, you are unable to perform with reasonable continuity the Substantial And Material Acts necessary to pursue your Own Occupation and you are not working in your Own Occupation.
2. Partial Disability Definition: You are Partially Disabled from your Own Occupation if you are not Totally Disabled and you are actually working in your Own Occupation but, as a result of Physical Disease, Injury, Pregnancy or Mental Disorder, you are unable to earn 80% or more of your Indexed Predisability Earnings.

Note: You are not Disabled from your Own Occupation merely because your right to perform your Own Occupation is restricted, including a restriction or loss of license. The loss of a professional license, occupational license, or certification does not, in itself, constitute Disability.

During the Own Occupation Period you may work in another occupation while you meet the Own Occupation definition of Disability. However, your Work Earnings may be Deductible Income and STD Benefits will end when your Work Earnings meet or exceed 80% of your Indexed Predisability Earnings.

Own Occupation may be interpreted to mean the employment, business, trade or profession that involves the Substantial And Material Acts of the occupation you are regularly performing for your Employer when Disability begins. Own Occupation is not necessarily limited to the specific job you perform for your Employer.

Substantial And Material Acts means the important tasks, functions and operations generally required by employers from those engaged in your Own Occupation that cannot be reasonably omitted or modified. In determining what Substantial And Material Acts are necessary to pursue your Own Occupation, we will first look at the specific duties required by your job. If you are unable to perform one or more of these duties with reasonable continuity, we will then determine whether those duties are customarily required of other individuals engaged in your Own Occupation. If any specific, material duties required of you by your job differ from the material duties customarily required of other individuals engaged in your Own Occupation, then we will not consider those duties in determining what Substantial And Material Acts are necessary to pursue your Own Occupation.

What is deductible income?

Deductible income is income you receive or are eligible to receive while STD benefits are payable. It is used to reduce the amount of your STD benefits and includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Personal leave pay and annual leave pay, 4850 pay, and other forms of salary continuation (including donated amounts). After the initial 60 days of an approved Disability, vacation pay and compensatory time off are not considered Deductible Income.
- Benefits under any worker's compensation law (other than benefits for permanent disability), state disability income benefit law or similar law
- Social Security disability or retirement benefits, including benefits for your spouse and children
- Disability benefits from any other group insurance
- Any disability or retirement benefits you receive or are entitled to receive under your employer's retirement plan (such as PERS, STRS, or plan through a union or employee association) including a previous employers retirement plan through a peace officer's agency, unless receipt of such retirement benefits commenced prior to your date of disability under this STD plan. Amounts you receive through the Deferred Retirement Option Program (D.R.O.P.), also will be considered deductible income.
- Earnings from work activity while you are disabled
- Any amount of third party liability payments you receive by judgment, settlement or otherwise (less attorneys' fees)
- Any amount you receive by compromise, settlement or other method as a result of a claim or any of the above.
